Your Wedding Photography

“ Your wedding day
is one of the most important days of your life, a day you will want to cherish forever. ”

...Perfection on your wedding day. As important to us as it is to you

With a combined experience of more than 30 years, our highly qualified photography team understand you will want the memories of your special day captured in images that will endure and give pleasure to you, your family and friends for years to come.

At Andrew Barton Photography we offer a bespoke and supremely personal service, providing an unequalled portfolio of wedding portraiture where the superlative quality of photography is matched by exquisite presentation.

Our stylish book-bound albums are individually designed where, as you turn each page, another magical moment of your special day is revealed in a variety of captivating layouts.

Attention to detail and professionalism are our hallmarks. From the moment you commission us to handle your wedding photography through to the day when you are presented with your stunning finished album the team are with you every step of the way.

Preliminary meetings are key to the perfect wedding portraiture. They provide an opportunity to help you choose the wedding package that suits you and your budget, for us to learn about you and your plans for your special day...and importantly for you to get to know us and view examples of our work.

At home

If you wish, photographing this very special occasion can begin with the bride early in the day, unobtrusively capturing those informal behind-the-scenes unscripted moments; the bride and bridesmaids applying last-minute finishing touches to their dresses, make-up and hair, intimate family groups and then the radiant bride departing for the service.

The marriage service

The build-up of excitement and anticipation as the bridegroom anxiously awaits his bride, the guests arriving and the triumphant entrance of the bride – all beautifully captured.

Your reception

We capture the joy and the fun of the occasion, moments both formal and spontaneous, details you may have missed, every element that makes your wedding day unique.

Your photographs

By the time you return from your honeymoon your photographs will be ready for previewing. They may also be viewed online for which we can provide a password protection facility if required. Once you are happy with the design we will create a unique record of your wedding day in a sumptuous book-bound album.

After you have approved and signed off the proof, your album should be available for collection in approximately 14 working days.

Our albums

Photographic artistry and technological sophistication. Fresh and contemporary book-bound albums in colour, black and white and sepia. Please contact us to make arrangements to view our exciting range of albums.

My commitment to you

Your wedding day is as special to you as it is to me and I am committed to ensuring that the wedding portraits I create for you will forever reflect the joy and happiness of your special day.
